Agents in Calcutta—Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co.

Local Agents.

Allahabad,—Curator of Government Books.
Nagpoor,—Curator of Government Books.

Lahore,—Manager, Printing Co.

Simla,—Mr. T. H. Williams, Music & Fancy Dépôt.
Bombay,—Messrs. Thacker, Vining & Co.

N. B.—Maps are not sold at the Office of the Surveyor General of India, Calcutta, but applications for maps on payment should be made to Agents. This Department only issues maps, free of charge, on the Public Service. It is particularly requested that the nearest local Agent as above be first applied to for any map required on the Public Service before indenting on this Department. The cost of postage of parcels must be borne by applicants themselves, as also such incidental charges as may be incurred at their request for mounting and binding maps. The best maps are invariably supplied in lieu of those asked for which may not be available, and lists of all newly published maps are periodically notified in the Gazettes of India and of local Governments.

SURVEYOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 25th February 1874.

Colonel D. C. Vanrenen, R. A., Superintendent Revenue Surveys, Lower Circle, is allowed one month's subsidiary leave from such date as he may avail himself of it, preparatory to the furlough granted to him in Government General Order, No. 155, dated 19th February 1874.

H. L. THUILLIER, Colonel,
Surveyor General of India.

POST OFFICE.

Circular No. 1362, dated Hong-kong, 20th Dec. 1873.

From—J. W. MITCHELL, Esq., Post Master Genl., Hong-kong.

To—The Post Master General, Bombay.

I have the honor to inform you that the departures of the United States Packets from Hong-kong for San Francisco on the 27th of the month will for the present be discontinued.

Regd. No. 2263, dated G. P. Office, London, 7th Jan. 1874.

From—W. J. PAGE, Esq.,

To—A. M. MONTEATH, Esq.

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th ultimo, and in reply to acquaint you that pending the settlement of a question respecting the proposed conveyance of the heavy portion of the India, &c., mails by the packets of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company through the Suez Canal, it has not been found possible to prepare a Time Table of the India, China, and Japan Mail Packet Service for the current year.

2. In the meantime, and until a decision in respect to the Suez Canal has been arrived at, the Post Master General has been pleased to appoint the same days for the sailing of the packets from the several terminal ports as in 1873.

NOTIFICATION.

The following Rules made by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, having received the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, are now published.

By order,
R. BELCHAMBERS,

Registrar.

5th March 1874.

It is ordered that the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of the Rules of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, in its Original Jurisdiction, which came into effect in July 1862, and the tables of fees of the said High Court in its Original Civil Jurisdiction (except those which came into effect on the 15th day of May 1873), in its Matrimonial Jurisdiction, in its Original Criminal Jurisdiction, and in all proceedings in Personam in its Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Jurisdiction; and also the table of fees of the Sheriff of Calcutta, be and the same are hereby repealed. And it is further ordered that the following rules be read and passed as the rules of the said High Court in its Original Jurisdiction to take effect from the ninth day of March 1874:—

1. The fees of Court to be taken in all proceedings in Rem and other proceedings in the exercise of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Jurisdiction, to which the rules contained in Act VIII of 1859 are not applicable, shall be those set forth in the table of fees made and established by order of his late Majesty King William the IV in Council in pursuance of the 2nd William IV, Cap. 51.

2. The fees of Court to be taken in all proceedings in the respective jurisdictions indicated in the headings to the first, second, third and fourth schedules hereto, and to which the tables of fees which came into effect on the 15th of May 1873 are not applicable, shall be those set forth in such schedules, respectively.

3. The first of the said schedules shall, except as to fees specially provided in the second and third of the said schedules, apply to all proceedings, Testamentary and Intestate and Matrimonial, and shall also apply to all proceedings in appeal from the Original Civil Jurisdiction of the Court.

4. The fourth of the said schedules shall apply to all proceedings in appeal from the Original Criminal Jurisdiction of the Court, as well as to all other proceedings in such Jurisdiction.

5. The fees to be allowed to the Sheriff and his officers shall be those set forth in the fifth schedule hereto.

6. The fees to be allowed to arbitrators and others named in the sixth schedule hereto, shall be those set forth in such schedule.

7. The allowance to be made to witnesses shall be those set forth in the seventh schedule hereto.

8. The folio for all purposes shall consist of 90 words, and 7 figures shall be counted as one word.

19. The number of questions in each paper shall be eight, and the aggregate number of marks for the whole eight questions shall be 160. To be entitled to pass, a candidate must obtain 90 marks in each paper.

20. Before any articled clerk shall be admitted to the Final examination, he shall sign and leave with the Registrar answers to the questions contained in the Schedule A hereunto annexed, as also a certificate of his having passed one of the examinations mentioned in Rule 9, or the document mentioned in Rule 24, and a certificate of the Examiners of his having passed the Intermediate examination, and an affidavit by himself stating that he has actually and really served and been employed by the Attorney or Attorneys to whom he was bound during the whole term, and in the manner required by these rules; that he has not held any office or engaged in any employment contrary to these rules; that he has attained the age of 21 years; and that he has not been adjudicated an Insolvent. And the Attorney or Attorneys with whom he shall have served his clerkship shall sign and leave with the Registrar answers to the questions contained in the Schedule B hereunto annexed, as also a certificate in the form therein given.

21. The applicant shall, at the same time, produce satisfactory testimonials to his good character.

22. Every person applying to be admitted to the Final examination shall also, if required, sign and leave, or cause to be left, with the Registrar answers in writing to such other written or printed questions as shall be proposed by the Examiners touching his service and conduct, and also, if required, attend the Examiners personally for the purpose of giving further explanation touching the same; and shall also, if required, procure the Attorney or Attorneys with whom he shall have served his clerkship as aforesaid, to answer either personally or in writing any questions touching such service or conduct, or shall make proof to the satisfaction of the Examiners of his inability to procure the same.

23. Every person so applying shall also attend the Examiners at such place or places, and at such time or times, as shall be appointed for that purpose, and shall answer such questions as the Examiners shall then and there put to him, by written or printed papers, touching his fitness and capacity to act as an Attorney.

24. If any person, previous to being articulated to an Attorney of this Court, shall have been articulated to an Attorney or Solicitor of one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in England or Ireland, he shall leave with the Registrar his original articles entered into in England or Ireland, or an authenticated copy thereof, and shall state in the affidavit to be made by him pursuant to Rule 20, the circumstances under which the service under such last-mentioned articles was terminated.

25. In case the applicant shall show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Examiners why the requirements of Rules 20 and 24 cannot be fully complied with, it shall be in the power of the Examiners, upon other sufficient proof being given of the qualification of the candidate under these rules, to dispense with any part of such requirements that they may think fit and reasonable.

26. The Registrar for the time being of the High Court, Original Jurisdiction, together with such Advocates and Attorneys of the Court to the number of six or more as the Chief Justice shall from time to time appoint, shall be Examiners to examine such persons as shall desire to be admitted Attorneys of the said Court; and any four of such Examiners shall be competent to conduct the said examinations.

27. The examinations shall be held once in every six months, at such time and place as the Examiners shall appoint.

28. Any clerk shall be at liberty to attend the Final examination next preceding the expiration of his term of service: but he shall not be admitted as an Attorney until after his term of service shall have expired; nor shall the certificate mentioned in Rule 33 be issued without proof to the satisfaction of the Examiners that the clerk has duly served the remaining period of his term of service.

29. The Registrar shall reduce all notices of intention to appear at any examination into an alphabetical table under convenient heads, and shall, three weeks previous to the examination, affix the same on the notice board, and also on a board to be exhibited daily at the entrance to the principal Court-room on the Original Side.

30. The Registrar shall inform each candidate who shall have given notice of his intention to appear at any of the examinations of the days fixed for such examination.

31. Every person intending to apply for admission as an Attorney shall give one month's notice in writing to the Registrar, stating his intention, such notice to be included in the notice for Final examination or given separately.

32. Every person, before being admitted as an Attorney, shall obtain a certificate signed by the major part of the Examiners actually present at and conducting the examination (one of them being the Registrar), that he has satisfactorily passed the examinations hereinbefore prescribed for the admission of Attorneys.

33. Every such person shall, before admission, likewise produce a certificate signed by the major part of the Examiners (one of them being the Registrar), that he has really and actually served his articles in accordance with the foregoing rules, and that he is a fit and proper person to be admitted as an Attorney.

34. In case any person shall be dissatisfied with the refusal of the Examiners to grant him the certificate mentioned in Rule 33, he shall be at liberty, within one month, to apply for admission by petition in writing to the Chief Justice, which application shall be heard by any two or more Judges whom the Chief Justice shall appoint for that purpose.

35. Every Vakeel of the High Court, who has obtained the degree of B. L., and has, after obtaining the degree of B. A., served for three years as an articled clerk to an Attorney, and has complied with all the rules required for the service of articled clerks to Attorneys (except the rules as to the Intermediate and Final examinations), shall be admitted to practice as an Attorney, anything in these rules notwithstanding.

36. No person shall be admitted to practice as an Attorney without proof that he has attained the age of 21 years.

37. No person who shall have been adjudicated an insolvent shall be admitted to any of the examinations prescribed by these rules, or shall be admitted to practice as an Attorney of this Court, unless the Court shall otherwise order.

38. The mode of applying to be admitted an Attorney shall be by petition. Such petition shall be left with the Registrar, together with, in the case of a person applying under Rule 1—

Petition and documents to be left with the Registrar. (1) the certificates required by Rule 1;

(2) proof of good character;

or, in the case of a person applying under Rule 2—

(1) the certificates required by Rule 2;

(2) proof of good character;

or, in the case of an articled clerk who is also a Vakeel of the High Court—

(1) an affidavit by himself, similar to the affidavit prescribed by Rule 20;

(2) answers by the Attorney whom he shall have served to the questions contained in the Schedule B hereunto annexed, as also a certificate in the form therein given;

(3) proof of good character;

or, in the case of any other articled clerk, the certificates of the Examiners to be issued under Rules 32 and 33.

39. The Registrar shall submit the petition to be admitted an Attorney, with the other documents to be left with him, to the Judge for the time being exercising Original Jurisdiction for his fiat.

40. Every person on being admitted and enrolled as an Attorney of this Court may, without the payment of any fee, besides the admission fee, obtain a certificate of admission under the signature of the Registrar and the seal of the Court.

41. Every person intending to undergo any of the examinations prescribed by these rules, shall, before each half-yearly examination, give one calendar month's notice in writing to the Registrar stating his intention, and shall at the same time, and on each occasion of giving notice of examination, pay to the Registrar a fee of Rs. 100 the notice be for a Preliminary or Final examination, and a fee of Rs. 50 if the notice be for an Intermediate examination.

42. Every person who shall have given notice of his intention to appear at any of the examinations, or to apply for admission as an Attorney, and who shall not have attended to be examined, or not have passed the examination, or not have been admitted, may renew the notice for examination or admission from time to time as often as he shall think proper, provided that every renewed notice shall be given in conformity with Rules 31 and 41 unless the Court shall otherwise order.

43. All expenses that may be incurred on account of the examinations to be conducted under these rules, shall be defrayed by the Registrar out of the examination fee fund, and the balance of the fees realized on each examination shall be divided between the Examiners who shall conduct such examination, provided that no larger sum shall be received by any Examiner on account of any one examination than Rs. 300.

44. The Registrar shall keep an account of all such fees as shall be paid to him under Rule 41, and shall at the end of each year file a statement of account signed by himself and two other Examiners.

45. Any Attorney of this Court may, on the payment of a fee of Rs. 5, to be paid by means of Court fees stamps, obtain a certificate, under the signature of the Registrar and the seal of the Court, that his name is borne on the roll of Attorneys of this Court, and if such be the case, that he is a practising Attorney of this Court.

46. The Registrar of this Court on the Original Side, shall be the proper officer for receiving and filing all such affidavits and documents as are required to be produced and filed under these rules, and shall have the custody and care of the rolls or books wherein persons are at present enrolled as Attorneys, and shall enrol the name of every person who shall be admitted an Attorney, with the date of his admission, in alphabetical order, in a roll or book to be kept by him for that purpose, to which roll or book all persons shall have free access without fee or reward.

47. Forms of notice of examination are set forth in the Schedule C hereunto annexed.

48. The Judge of the Court for the time being exercising ordinary original Civil Jurisdiction shall hear all applications under these rules to whom to be made. The hearing of which is not otherwise provided for, and shall exercise all the powers of the Court under these rules unless the Chief Justice shall otherwise specially direct.

49. These rules shall take effect from the 17th day of March 1874, except as to persons who are now serving, or have already served, under articles of clerkship to some Attorney of this Court, provided that every such person shall pay the fee payable, under Rule 41, with the notice for Final examination, on each occasion of giving such notice after he shall have once actually attended a Final examination without having passed the same; and except as to such persons and to all matters and things previously done in virtue thereof, all former rules for the admission of Attorneys are hereby repealed.

Rules under Section 31 of Act XI of 1865 providing for the Judge of Principal Court and of other Judge of Small Cause Court sitting together and disposing of suits and applications.

1. All applications for new trials under the last clause of Section 21 of Act XI of 1865, shall be made to the Court by which the case was originally decided. The mode of procedure prescribed by Section 378 of Act VIII of 1859 for disposing of applications for reviews of judgment, shall be followed in disposing of applications for new trial.

2. In cases in which the defendant has moved the Court for a new trial, and has deposited the sum decreed against him as required by Section 21 of Act XI of 1865, the Court shall detain the money till the new trial be granted, or till such other time as the Court shall order. In the event of notice not being given to the Court, as required by Section 21, or of the rule being refused, the plaintiff may take the money out of the Court without further delay.

3. If the Court be of opinion that a new trial be granted, the case shall be set down for hearing on the next date fixed for hearing new trials. Should the new trial be granted, the order shall be made on such terms as to the payment of costs as the Court shall direct.

4. If on the hearing of the second trial the verdict is entered for the plaintiff, the judgment may be satisfied pro tanto out of the sum already deposited for debt and costs by defendant, with the right of execution against the goods and person of the defendant for the amount payable by the defendant over and above the sum deposited.

5. If on the hearing of the new trial the verdict is entered for the defendant, he shall be at liberty to withdraw his deposit.

6. The Judge of the Principal Court of Small Causes and the other Small Cause Court Judge may sit together for the trial and determination of any suit which the Judges may reserve for trial by themselves and the other Small Cause Court Judge, and all new trials granted under the provisions of Section 21 of Act XI of 1865 shall be heard in conformity with Sections 32 and 34 of the said Act before the Judges under Section 15 of the said Act, unless the Judge shall otherwise order at the time when the new trial is applied for.

7. If the Judges concur in the decision or order to be passed, such decision or order shall be the decision or order of the Court, but if they shall differ on a point of law or usage having the force of law or in construing a document, the construction of which may affect the merits of the decision, they shall submit a case for the opinion of the High Court, North-Western Provinces, on the point of difference between them, in the manner prescribed in the twenty-second Section of Act XI of 1865.

8. If the Judges differ on any matter other than the matters above-mentioned, the Judge of the Principal Court shall have the casting voice.

9. The following days shall be set apart for the hearing and disposal of new trials and reserved cases :—

AJMERE AND BEAWR	{ 1st Monday in each 3rd Month, sitting to be held alternately at Beawr and Ajmere.
